

fcc should not implement any proposal that would lessen indiana's telephone privacy law.it is so nice to get home from work and not have those annoying calls coming in.we had around 15-20 calls a week before the telephone privacy law,and now no more than a couple.as citizens we are entitled to our privacy.